WILSON ARTISAN WINERIES WINES SERVED AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT LUNCHEON

Washington D. C. — On Tuesday, June 30, three of the Wilson Artisan Wineries' wines were featured at the State Department luncheon— Mazzocco's Sauvignon Blanc, Matrix's Chardonnay & Pinot Noir—in honor of her excellency Dilma Rousseff, President of Brazil, hosted by the Honorable Joseph R. Biden, Vice President of the United States, to review bilateral, regional, and multilateral agendas.

The Luncheon included high-ranking officials from both the United States and Brazil. Diane and Ken Wilson, proprietors of Wilson Artisan Wineries, were among the guests who met a number of the U.S. & Brazilian delegates, including President Dilma Rousseff of Brazil and U.S. Vice President Biden.

The wines served to the guests included the 2012 Matrix Pinot Noir Soracco – Russian River Valley during the reception, the 2014 Mazzocco Sauvignon Blanc-Alexander Valley paired with a fresh pea salad, and the 2012 Matrix Chardonnay–Bacigalupi paired with an aromatic seafood stew. We were delighted to be part of this momentous occasion featuring the best that Sonoma County appellations have to offer.
